FOREWORD

The FRASCO TRASCO in years to come will bring back memories of apprenticeship in preparing for life. Your days spent here will always be among your most cherished memories. The classes, clubs, and activities have enriched our lives here and they have played major roles in the molding of our characters. No matter how small one of these factors may seem, each of them constitute an important part in our lives. Through the pages of this book, we have tried to capture moments you will want to remember.

DEDICATION: TO OUR PARENTS

To our Parents and Guardians whose interests have been in the improvements of our lives - whose love and encouragement have been inspirational - and whose never ending sacrifices have made possible these four years of high school, we salute you.

Words cannot express our appreciation for your various contributions; but to show, in a small measure, how much we love, honor and cherish you, we respectfully dedicate the FRACOTRASCO of 1958.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Ladies and Gentlemen
of the Senior Class:

We are always proud of our Seniors and their accomplishments. However, we are aware of the fact that graduation from senior is just a beginning of the total process of life.

May I congratulate you on this your last year in HIGH SCHOOL.

My sincere wish is that yours will be happy, successful, and useful lives.

Cordially yours,
C. A. Harris

CLASS HISTORY

CHAPTER I

Four years ago, early one September morning in 1953, we, who are now seniors, honored the Franklin County Training School with our appearance. Whether we did this by choice or because we had to is a point that we refuse to discuss here. (The point is that we came in number).

We soon found out that we were to have two capable leaders, Mrs. Marguerite Evans and Mr. James M. Ridley. Right away we got the ball rolling by electing class officers, and just to show from the beginning who would be boss in this class we elected 4 girls and one boy: President, Gladys Stroud; Vice President, Hazel Eaton; Secretary, Matilda Macon; Assistant Secretary, Evelyn Chavis; and Treasurer, Joshua Levister, Jr.; also to show that we meant business from the start we sent out participants to the following activities: Basketball—Virginia Webb, Gladys Stroud, Frances Whitaker, Matilda Macon, to the girls team. Kenneth Harris, Joshua Levister, to the boys team. Choral Club—Frances, Gladys, Elaine, Matilda, Laura, Juanita. Student Council—Elaine Strickland, Virginia, Eaton and Joshua Levister.

Although many of us managed to complete our Freshman year successfully, disaster befell others of us. A few had their growth retarded a year, others dropped out of the Freshman Class forever.

CHAPTER II

With the coming of the next September, we received a new name—Sophomores. We entered this year a little wiser and with more confidence than we had had during the previous year. Even though our number had decreased to sixty, we were better represented in the extra-curricular activities. We sent out seven cheerleaders, twenty Choral Club members, seven Varsity Club members, some Band and Student Council members. Our class officers were: President, Virginia Eaton; Vice President, Hazel Eaton; Secretary, Margaret Branche; Assistant Secretary, Evelyn Chavis; Co-Treasurers, Frances Whitaker and Joshua Levister. This was a most distinguished body and reflected honor on the entire school.

CHAPTER III

In the third year, owing to an old educational custom, the Sophomores became Juniors, and our promotion made our sense of importance increase out of all due proportion.

Suddenly we found that another change had taken place in our important lives. We had lost one of our leaders, Mrs. Marguerite Evans, and in her place, we found another, Mrs. V. H. Levister. Although we missed Mrs. Evans very much, we found in Mrs. Levister and Mr. Ridley the guidance, sincerity and friendship that did not give us time to mourn our loss. We organized with the following officers: President, Virginia Eaton; Vice President, Gladys Stroud; Secretary, Evelyn Chavis; Assistant Secretary, Elaine Strickland; and Treasurer, Frances Whitaker.

CLASS HISTORY

This was a year of hard work. We found ourselves faced with many and greater problems. We had to remain outstanding in all activities in which we had formerly participated plus being host to the Seniors at the Junior-Senior Prom.

We were indeed a proud and happy class. It was with pleasure that we watched Matilda Macon, Hazel Eaton, Betty Brodie, Evelyn Chavis, Johnnie Jeffreys, Elaine Strickland, Alice Stokes, Laura Wright, Virginia Eaton, Raymond Alston, and Ralph Brown become members of the Crown and Scepter Club. Gladys Stroud, Frances Whitaker, and Elaine Strickland were still doing their bit on the basketball team. Hazel Eaton, Virginia Eaton, Margaret Branche, Harvey Spivey, Johnnie Jeffreys, and Betty Brodie became members of a new group, the Dramatic Club.

CHAPTER IV

And now we come to the fourth and greatest year in the history of the class. With only 46 of us gaining the title, Seniors, we began to take ourselves seriously. For the last time, as a group, we elected with great care, the following people to office: President, Ralph Brown; Vice President, Elaine Strickland; Secretary, Evelyn Chavis; Treasurer, Frances Whitaker; Sponsor, Mrs. V. H. Levister.

Juanita Young, Evelyn Chavis, and Elaine Strickland represented us at the Shriner's Debutante Ball in Louisburg. Their escorts were: Plummer Williamson, Ralph Brown, and Joshua Levister, respectively. Frances Whitaker represented us at the A.K.A. Debutante's Ball in Raleigh. Her escorts were Kenneth Harris and Joshua Levister.

Johnnie Jeffreys, Harvey Spivey, Rueval Jones, Carter Lewis, Robert Lee Alston, Joshua Levister, Raymond Yarborough, Plummer Williamson, Kenneth Harris, completed their third and fourth years on the football squad. Elaine Strickland, Matilda Macon, Hazel Eaton, Alice Stokes, Bettye Brodie, and Johnnie Jeffreys received Crown and Scepter Certificates. Our Student Council members were Virginia Eaton, Elaine Strickland, Johnnie Jeffreys, and Joshua Levister.

We journeyed to A. & T. College, Greensboro, N.C. for Senior Day. A good time was had by all. The Juniors treated us to an evening of fun and gaiety at the Junior-Senior Prom.

Our work is almost over, for the shadows of graduation have cast their glow. What shall the future be? For some there will be college, for others marriage, the armed forces, or jobs. Whatever we do and wherever we go, we shall be making history for Dear Old F.C.T.S.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

State of North Carolina;
County of Franklin:

We, the Senior Class of Franklin County Training School, 1958, about to pass from these halls of learning, being in full possession of our mental capacities and without restraint, do hereby, make and publish this last will and testament for you to carry out after we have gone and remember us for all our good and bad qualities.

Article I. To Mr. Harris, our principal, we bequeath our best wishes for a better senior class next year and the realization of his dreams for a new cafeteria. We also leave any great deed or noteworthy achievements that our future may bring, realizing that such achievement will be due largely to his own example and guidance.

Article II. To our advisor, Mrs. Levister, we bequeath our gratitude and thanks for being our rock and mainstay, and wish her success with other students in the years to come.

Article III. To our deans, Miss Bradshaw and Mr. Conway, we leave a vote of thanks for their untiring efforts to help us overcome our difficulties, and their attempt to instill within us principles of finer manhood and womanhood.

Article IV. To the entire faculty, we bequeath our love, regard, and appreciation for what they have done for us through the years, and hope that their efforts to raise cultural standards and standards of scholarship will materialize. We leave many thanks for their conscientious efforts in preparing us for better citizens.

Article V. To the juniors, we leave the name seniors, quietness, and all dignity, and responsibilities of the same.

Article VI. To certain individuals, we, hereby, bequeath the following:

To Carl Davis, RALPH BROWN wills his land and money.

To Joe Hawkins, ROBERT LEE ALSTON wills his football suit.

GLADYS STROUD wills to Eunice Perry the key to Earl Johnson's heart, and to Renee Edgerton, her ability to become captain of the majorettes.

ALICE STOKES wills Madie Lee White her ability to write shorthand.

To Herbert Littlejohn, PERNELL HARTSFIELD wills his ability to sleep in class.

JUANITA YOUNG leaves to Francine Hazelwood her size and shape.

To Frances Ann Perry, ELAINE STRICKLAND wills her ability to sew.

FRANCES WHITAKER leaves her popularity and ability to ballroom dance to Mary A. Hawkins.

KENNETH HARRIS bequeaths his versatility to J. T. Hill.

PLUMMER WILLIAMSON and REVAL JONES bequeath their positions on the football team to Frank and Bobby Perry.

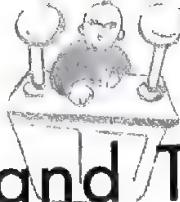

HAZEL EATON leaves to Florine Edgerton her height in order that she may catch up with her twin.

HARVEY SPIVEY leaves his sense of humor to William Hockaday.

VIRGINIA EATON leaves her class ring to David Moss, and her art of dressing hair to Phyllis Robinson.

LOIS MOORE and GLADYS WILLIAMS will their quiet and sedate ways to Shirley Lemay and Pearlie Gray Kearney.

BETTIE BRODIE wills her undying love for one man to Josephine Perry.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

ETHEL JANE FOSTER leaves her size to Margaret Alston.

SHIRLEY MOORE leaves her "giggling" and ability to disturb the class to Mary L. Anderson.

"BILLY" LEWIS leaves his job at O'Neal's to Herbert Littlejohn.

NANCY BRADFORD leaves her ability to drive the bus to Barbara Strickland.

To Joyce Ann Davis, MARGARET BRANCH wills her sophisticated walk.

EVELYN CHAVIS bequeaths her position as soloist to Elvira Blaney.

MATILDA MACON and LAURA WRIGHT bequeath their ability to gossip and take care of other people's business to Margaret Perry and Lucille Young.

CLARA COOKE wills her disposition and personality to Elizabeth A. Williams.

To Jessie Black, WILEY DAVIS leaves his beard.

RAYMOND ALSTON leaves his seat in the senior class to Larry Richardson.

LUCY TERRELL leaves her comb, lipstick, and earrings to Marjorie Perry.

JAMES HAYES leaves his position as banker of school funds to Wilson Robinson.

JOHNNY JEFFREYS wills his ability to stay on the honor roll to Parker Gupton.

To Elton Rodwell, CHARLES MOORE leaves his quietness and ability to get along with others.

GEORGE MILON wills to Bobby Yarborough his ability to pay debts and stop borrowing.

OTHA PACE leaves his ability to steal out of class and disappear to Clarence Moles.

JOHN TERRELL and GEORGE GREENE leave their stature to Sanford Johnson and William Davis.

ELNORA WRIGHT leaves to Carliena Hampton her height to use on the basketball court.

RAYMOND YARBOROUGH wills Rickie Lee Hill his football career (off the bench).

JOSHUA LEVISTER leaves to Tracy Hawkins his sports ability.

BESSIE WILLIAMS leaves her ability to get a husband to Shirley Lemay.

JAMES HILLIARD and THOMAS JONES bequeath their ability to not study and get by in school to William Greene and Charlie Anderson.

WILMA WILLIAMS wills her ability to stay in her seat and keep quiet to Odessa Kelley.

KATIE PERRY bequeaths her eye glasses to Annie Joyner so that she won't have difficulty in reading.

If there be any property of ours which we have not bequeathed, we leave our executors to use as they see fit.

Signed this 23rd day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight.

CLASS SONG

(Tune: Bon Voyage)

Dear old F.C.T.S.,
The time to part is here.
We'll pray each day
We're on our way
For you our school so dear.
Goodbye to all our loved ones,
To you, we'll always be true.
With aching hearts we say again,
Goodbye to all of you.
Goodbye to all our loved ones,
May God take of you.
Until we meet here once again,
May God take care of you.

CLASS POEM

Our parting year has finally come,
All our lessons have been done;
Now we are faced with saying goodbye
To a school whose wonderful spirit will never die.

We hate to leave you F.C.T.S. Dear
Our love for you will always be near;
But as our senior year goes rolling by
We will have to bid you a sad goodbye.

We leave you with tears in our eyes
To face the wide world which before us lies;
But wherever we may go, and whatever we do
We'll always think of you as a school of fine teachers and students too.

Thanks for the fine things you've given us
Your guiding hand we shall always trust.
Now Dear F.C.T.S. we say farewell
Our gratitude to you we can never tell.

MR. WALTER EDGERTON.....	President
REVEREND E. L. BRODIE.....	Vice President
MRS. A. M. HAMPTON.....	Secretary
MRS. EDNA FOGG.....	Assistant Secretary
MR. CLIFFORD HAWKINS.....	Treasurer

Our P.T.A. is one of the many such local organizations that seek to unite the forces of home, school, and community in behalf of children and youth. One of its objectives is to bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child. No other agency is so well fitted for creating the mutually sympathetic attitude between the parents and the teachers, working on behalf of the child, as is the well-organized and well-conducted parent-teacher association.

Activities and Programs for 1957-58

A. Programs presented to P.T.A. by-

1. The Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Grades
(Book Week Program)
2. N.F.A. Boys (Christmas Program)
3. Band

5. Homemaking Dept.
6. Choral Club

B. The Organization Sponsored-

1. Special Membership Drive
2. Speaker-Highway Safety Dept.
3. P.T.A. Programs
4. Vesper Service
5. Float for Homecoming

Entertainment was furnished by the school for class with most parents in attendance.

The appointed community Captain, responsible for bringing in the most members-crowned Queen of the P.T.A. for 1957-58.

PARENT-TEACHER PRAYER

HEAVENLY FATHER,

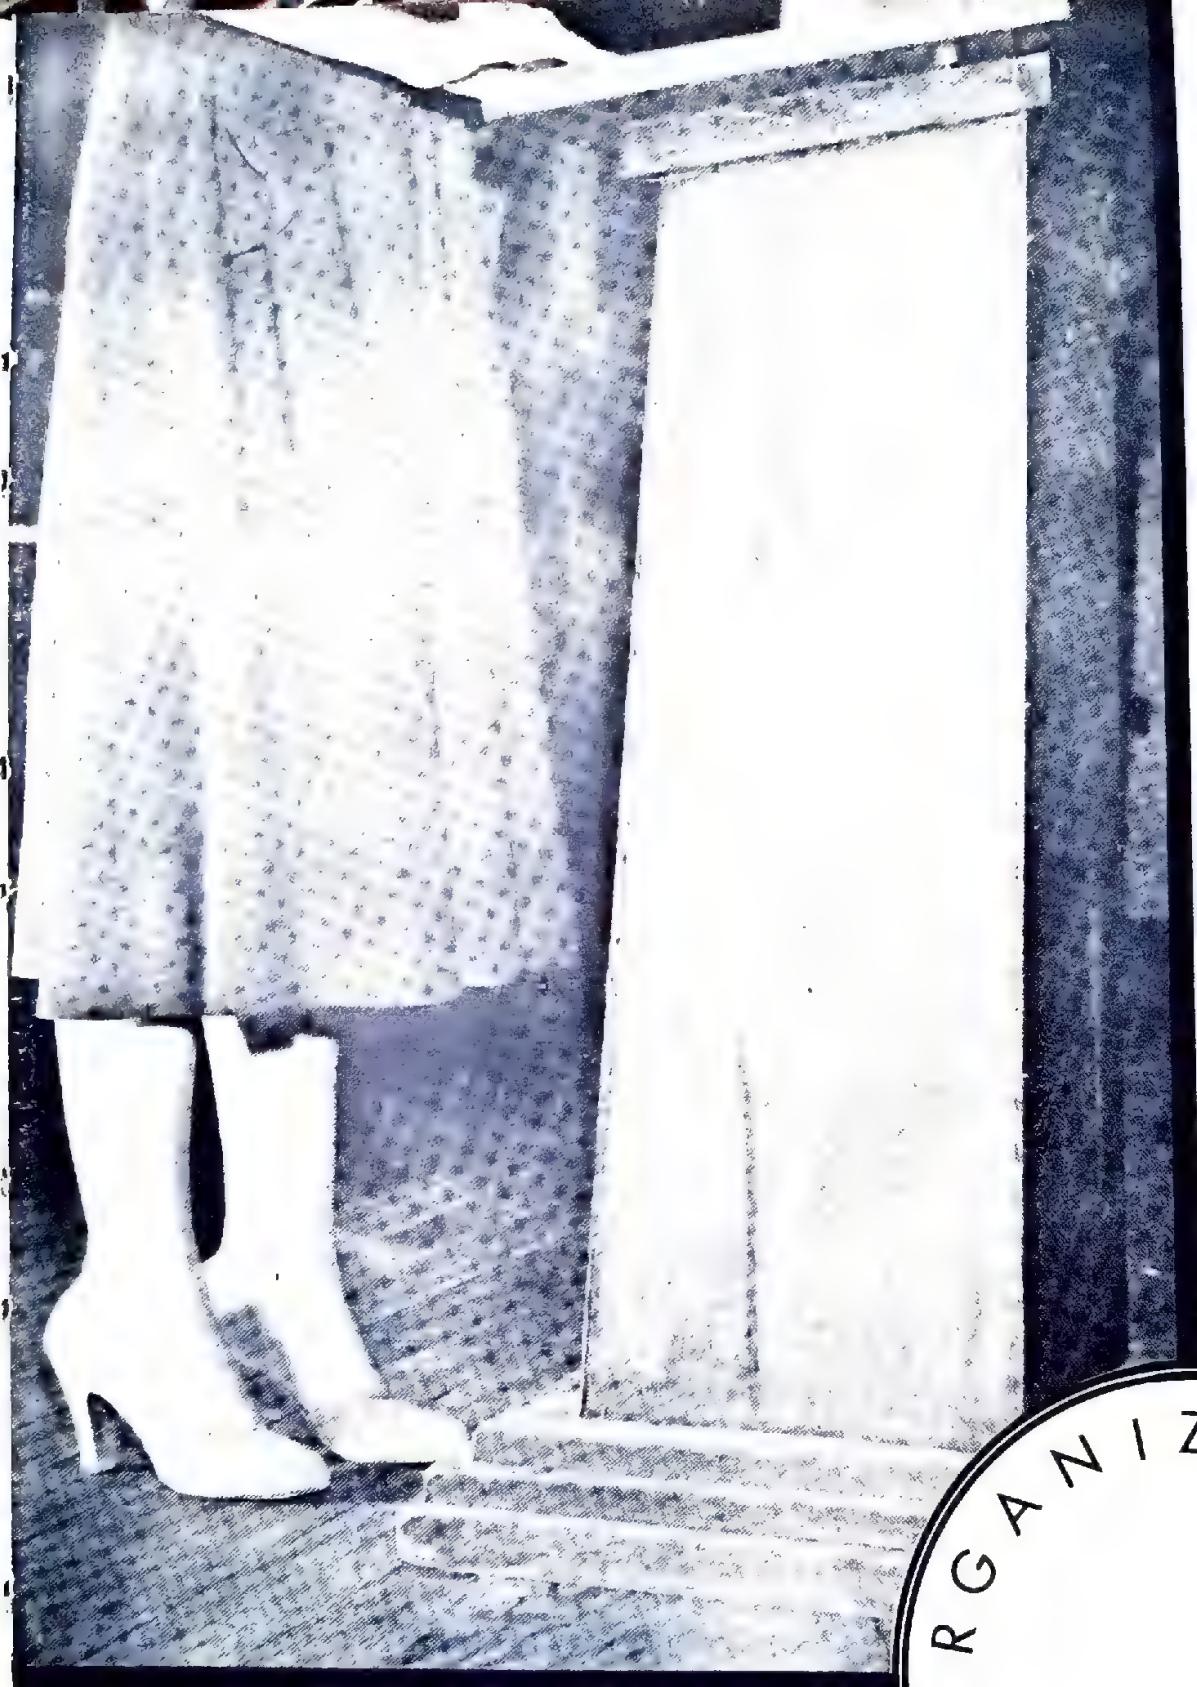

Thou who art our Creator and our God:

We thank Thee for all the blessings thou hast bestowed upon us, more especially for the children and our relation to them. We ask that Thou wilt endow us with wisdom and strength as we care for and nurture them. May we be Thine instruments to lead our children to a realization of Thy power and Thy love.

Bless Thou our fellowship as we work for the children of our land. Lead us in steadfastness and faith toward the solution of the great problems that confront our world today.

Consecrate us to Thy service and to the service of all children, everywhere.

Amen.
